

I N D E X.

- Admiralty of the bay of Galway, 285, note.
 Aghnenure castle surprised by Morough na dubh O'Flaherty, 109.
 Albanagh, Sir William de Burgh, the first M^oWilliam oughter, so called, 56.
 Altars in St. Nicholas' church, 246, note.
 Amicable society, 312.
 Annaghdown, ancient diocese of, 68.
 Anaghkeene, Sir William de Burgh of, the first M^oWilliam eighter, 55; takes possession of Galway, 56.
 Ancient records of Ireland destroyed, 34.
 Ardfry, Sir Richard Blake's house at, pillaged by captain Wihoughby, 115, 118.
 Armada, Spanish, one of the vessels wrecked in the bay, 93; several Spaniards beheaded by the lord deputy, ib.; humanity of the town's people, ib. note.
 Arms of Galway, 25, 37; note, 197.
 Arran, Islands of, 5, 52, 63, 82, 207, addenda.
 Articles upon the submission of Galway, 114, note; upon the surrender of St. Augustine's fort, 121, note; of the town to Coote, 132; and to Ginckle, 161.
 Assizes first established in Connaught, 98, note.
 Athenry supposed to be ancient city of the Arteri, mentioned by Ptolemy, 36; murage charter granted to, 49, note; battle of, 54; burned by the Mac-an-Earlas, 87; improvements undertaken, 94, note; plundered and burned by Hugh ruadh O'Donnell, ib.
 Athlone bridge built, 39, note.
 Athy, family of, 6, 7, 25, 54.
 Attornies, 314, note.
 Aughrim, battle of, 156.
 Augustine's, St. fort built, 97; surrendered, 121; demolished, 122.
 Augustinian friary, 278; nunnery, 278.
 Ausoba, bay of Galway according to Ptolemy, 5.
- Ballinasloe, fairs of, 287, note.
 Ballymanagh, fort of, built, 102.
 Barrett, family of, 21, 25.
 Bay of Galway, 4, 279.
 Begg, family of, 21.
 Bellasayse, Sir Henry, appointed governor of Galway, 162; his description of the Papists, 164; elected mayor, ib.; accused by colonel Purcell, ib. note.
 Bells in St. Nicholas' church, 248, note.
 Bermingham, family of, 21, 25.
 ———, Richard de, defeats Fedhlim O'Conor, 54; his warlike character, ib. note.
 ———, Sir Richard, governor of Connaught, his rigor and exactions, 94.
 Black petition against the Catholics, 183, note.
 Blake, family of, 7, 25, 50, 54.
- Blake, Patrick, esq. of Drum, elected mayor, 188; disfranchises several non-resident freemen, ib.; opposed by Denis Daly, esq. ib.
 ———, Sir Walter, his petition to William III. 162, note.
 Bodkin, family of, 8, 25, 50.
 Boplin, castle of, built by Cromwell, 165; surrenders, ib.
 Boundaries of the county of Galway, 99, note.
 Bridge of Galway built, 57.
 Browne, family of, 10, 25.
 Bruce, Edward, invades Ireland, 53; defeats the earl of Ulster and Fedhlim O'Conor, 54.
 Burgh, Sir William leigh de, founds the Franciscan abbey, Galway, 54; defeats Fedhlim O'Conor, ib.; his death and issue, ib.
 Burgo, William Fitz-Andelm de, ancestor of the family of Clanricarde, arrives in Ireland, 44; obtains a grant of Connaught from Hen. II. 45; his fame and power, ib.; his death, ib.
 ———, Richard de, obtains a grant of Connaught from Hen. III. 46; deposes Turlough, and establishes Fedhlim O'Conor, ib.; afterwards defeats Fedhlim, and takes him prisoner, 48; builds several additions to the castle of Galway, and fortifies the town, ib.; dies, ib.
 ———, Walter, &c. defeated by Hugh O'Conor, 49; dies in the castle of Galway, ib.; his possessions and principal Anglo-Norman tenants in Connaught, 51, note.
 ———, Richard de, the red earl of Ulster, succeeds, 49; imprisoned in the castle of Dublin, 53, note; defeated by Bruce, 54.
 Burke, family of, 21, 25, 44.
 ———, colonel John, arrives in Galway, 119; declares against St. Augustine's fort, 120; demolishes it, 122.
 Butler, family of, 21, 25, 65.
 By-laws, 64, 83, 198.
- Castle of Galway built, 39; repaired and fortified, 47, 48.
 Catholic clergy, severe treatment of, 134.
 Catholic natives and inhabitants admitted to their freedom 150, 151, 152; determine to support James II. 154; form the garrison, ib.; turned out of the town, 167; re-admitted, 169; again turned out, 170; petition to parliament, 183.
 Charles II. his letter to the mayor of Galway, 125; letter to restore the ancient inhabitants, 141; his ingratitude, 145; charter, 147.
 Charters granted to the corporation, 229.
 Claddagh, account of, 292, note.
 Clan-na-gail, English settlers in Galway so called, 2.
 Clannonnella, sept of the, 21, 86.
 Clansrigail, ancient district of, 3.
 Clanmorris, lord, forced into rebellion, 116.
 Clanricarde, origin of the name, 55.

INDEX.

- Clanricarde, Sir William de Burgh, the last M^cWilliam eighth, created earl of, 81; excluded from all power in Galway, 82.
- , Rickard, earl of, first lord president of Connaught, 99, note; appointed governor of Galway, 102.
- , Ulick, marquis of, his care to secure the public peace, 109; his character, ib. note; composes the differences between the town and fort, 110; reduces the town to obedience, 114; succeeds Ormond as lord deputy of Ireland 127.
- Clare Galway abbey and castle built, 44, note; castle garrisoned, 112; surprised by captain Burke, 120; taken by Coote, 128.
- Clare, Richard de, war between him and de Burgo, 53.
- Clarence, duke of, marries Elizabeth, heiress of the earl of Ulster, 57; lays claim to Galway, ib; his issue, ib. note; inquisition taken after his death, ib.
- Clifford, Sir Conyers, president of Connaught, 94, note.
- Cogan, Milo, defeated in Connaught, 44.
- Collegiate church, 233; seal, ib; chapel, 254.
- Cole, Elisha, A.M. 89; note, 252.
- Coleman, family of, 21.
- Colony, Dutch, proposes to settle near Galway, 101; frustrated, 102.
- Commerce of Galway, 51, 58, 67, 83, 106, 138; declines, 174; causes misrepresented, 286; chamber of, 290.
- Common council, list of, 187, note.
- Communication between Lough-Corrib and the sea, commonly called Lynch's folly, commenced, 76.
- Conflagration in the town, 41, 65, 76, 101.
- Connaught, 8, 99, note; derivation of the name, 32; its miserable situation, 45; divided into counties, 91.
- Coote, Sir Charles, defeats and kills the R. C. archbishop of Tuam, 122; invests Galway, 128; proposes conditions, 130; town surrenders, 132; his severities, 137.
- Corporation disputes, 170, 227; decayed state, 285.
- Corrib, lough, 4, 279.
- Costume of the Irish, 202, note.
- Council of state assemblies in Galway, 131.
- Craddock, family of, 21.
- Crean, family of, 21, 25.
- Cromwell, Henry, his description of Galway, 23, 138. /
- Customs paid in the town previously to 1400, 51, note.
- Daly, judge, measures taken by him for the pacification of the country, 157.
- , James, esq. of Carrownekelly, his influence in Galway, 187.
- , Right Hon. Denis, triumphs over corporation opposition, 189.
- , James, esq. of Dunsandle, opposition against him in Galway, 193.
- , Denis Bowes, esq. disfranchised, 188, note; represents the town in parliament, 232.
- Danes, their barbarities, 39; destroy the ancient city of Galway, ib.
- D'arcy, family of, 11, 25.
- , Patrick, esq. addenda.
- Deane, family of, 12, 25, 65.
- Desmond, earl of, 86, note.
- Disputes between the archbishops of Tuam and the collegiate clergy, 245, 256; between the members of the corporation, 170, 227; between the tribes and non-tribes, 256, 258, 260.
- Division of Ireland by Heber and Heremon, the sons of Milesius, 33.
- Dominican friary, 270; chapel built, ib; nunnery, 277.
- Dune-bun na Gailive, castle of Galway, so called, 46.
- Dunlo Castle, near Ballinaloe, built, 39.
- East-tower gate built, 103, note.
- Education of the Irish, 86, note; low state of in Ireland during the reigns of Henry VIII. and Elizabeth, 86, note; Edw. IV. his charter to the town, 65; Edw. VI. his charter, 84; declares the bull of Innocent VIII. void, and re-establishes the collegiate church, 240.
- Emon-a-Tuane Lynch, 57.
- English rapacity and want of principle, 68, note.
- mayor and sheriffs appointed, 136.
- Eochaidh Feidhlioch, monarch of Ireland, divides Connaught into three parts, 33.
- Essex, earl of, describes the ruined state of Galway, 146.
- Etymological inquiries, 1.
- Excommunication by the warden of Galway, 113, note.
- Eyre, Edward, his dispute with Robert Martin of Ross, 142; accused of treasonable words, ib; acquitted by the house of commons, 143; his answer, ib. note; obtains a lease from the corporation, 145, note.
- , Stratford, esq. governor of the town, 177; his returns on the state of the fortifications, ib; complaints of his rigor, 180; his answers, ib.
- Fairs, patents for holding at Galway, 224, note; at Ballinaloe, 287, note.
- Falkland, lord deputy, arrives in Galway, 102; his munificence, ib.
- Ffallon, family of, 21, 26, 65.
- Families of Galway before Henry II. 6.
- Fines paid by the O'Conors, M'Dermods, O'Kellies, O'Flendegan and O'Fergill, 48, 49, note.
- Fire-engine much wanted in Galway, 315, note.
- Fishery, salmon, 291; herring, 296; sunfish, cod and turbot, 297.
- Fitton, president of Connaught, his severities, 85.
- Fitzpatrick, Richard, esq. M. P. supports the Daly interest against that of Eyre, 188.
- Fitzwilliams, lord deputy, his cruelty, 93; visits Galway, receives submissions of the Irish chieftains, and causes several Spaniards to be beheaded, ib.
- Flaxseed first imported into Galway, 290, note.
- Fleet, East India, arrives in the bay, 168, 190.
- Ffont, family of, 13, 25, 50.
- Fotbes, lord, arrives in the bay of Galway, 116; his brutal conduct, 118.
- Fortifications built, 122; decayed state described, 177; demolished, 192.
- Franciscan friary, 264; chapel built, 267; nunnery, 274.
- Freemen, non-resident, decision in favor of, 196.
- Ffrench, family of, 13, 25, 65.
- Gallimh the Irish name of Galway, 3.
- Galls, all foreigners so called by the ancient Irish, 2.
- Galway, derivation of the name, 3, 4; ancient city of, destroyed by the Danes 39; rebuilt ib; surrounded with walls, 40; modern state, 279; act, 172, 174; supposed origin of the family name of, 55, note.
- Gaols, 300, 302.
- Genealogical M.S. 9, note.
- George III. accession of, 183; hopes of the Irish Catholics, ib.
- Ginckle, general, resolves to besiege Galway, 158; summons the garrison, 160; signs articles, 161; enters the town, 162.
- Gloucester city remunerated by sale of forfeited houses in Galway, 138.

INDEX.

- Governor of Galway, remarkable anecdote of a, 12, note.
 Grana-weal, troops sent to besiege her castle, 86, note.
 Green, inclosed and planted with trees, 103.
 Grey, lord deputy, arrives in Galway, 81; receives submissions, ib.; his exactions, ib.
 Guild of merchants of the staple established, 100.
- Hackett, family of, 219, note.
 Hamilton, Mrs. corporation lands, charter and market-duties granted to, 146.
 Henry IV. his charter, 63; Henry VIII. his charter, 82.
 Heylyn, anecdote respecting Galway by, 22.
 Hospital, first built in High-street, 77.
 ——— of St. Bridget founded in the east suburbs, 81.
 Howard, Mr. visits the prisons, infirmary, charter and free-schools at Galway, 302, 304; note, 306, 311.
 Hy-Many or Manesch, O'Kelly king of, slain, 54, note.
- Independence of Galway asserted, 195.
 Innocent VIII. pope, his bull of confirmation, 68.
 Inquisition concerning the O'Connor family, and the earl of Ulster, 52, note; defining the boundaries of the county of Galway, 99, note; finding the title of Cha. I. to Connaught, 105, note.
 Ireton, his letter to general Preston, 123, note; to the citizens of Galway, 129, note; their answer, 130, note.
 Italian traveller, curious observations concerning Galway by an, 85.
- James I. proclaimed in Galway, 97; his letter concerning the town, 98; his charter 99.
 James II. favors the ancient inhabitants, 151; appoints lord Clanricarde, governor, 152; new charter, ib.; abstract from it, 153, note.
 Joyce, or Joyce, family of, 14, 25, 50.
 Joyce country, district of, 15, 100, note.
- Kelp, 287.
 Kent, Nicholas, his project to plunder Galway and Arran, 63.
 Killala, French land at, 191; general Hutchinson enabled, by the merchants of Galway, to march against the enemy, ib.
 Kirwan, family of, 16, 25.
 ———, Patrick, first reformed warden, 84; Richard, addenda; rev. Walter B. Kirwan, ib.
 Knights templars, 274.
 Knocktuadh, battle of, 77.
- Lacy, Hugo de, defeated in Connaught, 45.
 Ladies of Galway, 315.
 Lambert, family of, 21.
 Licentiousness of the country gentlemen, 96; resolutions of the corporation thereon, ib.
 Limerick, customs paid in, before 1300, inferior to those paid in Galway, 51, note; jealousies between the merchants of both places, 60; hostilities between the city and town, 78; curious articles of peace, ib. note; further jealousies, 79.
 Longevity, instances of, 207, note; 251, note.
 Lorrain, duke of, his treaty, 127.
 Loughrea castle built, 48, note.
 Loyalty of the inhabitants of Galway, 88, 123, 125, 141, 183, 190.
 Ludlow, his correspondence with Sir Richard Blake, 131.
 Lurgan-loch supposed to have been the bay of Galway, 4.
 Lynch, family of, 17, 25, 26, 50.
 ——— John, his description of Galway, 23; account of his life and writings, addenda.
 Mac-an-Earlas, driven into rebellion, 85; harrass the town, ib.; destroy the country, 86; submit, ib.; sent prisoners to Dublin, ib.; liberated and again take arms, ib.; besiege the castle of Loughrea, 88; defeated and finally subdued, ib.
 Mac Yeoris, or Bermingham, submits, 81.
 Magistrates of Galway, 197.
 Maps of the town, 22, 23, 24.
 Marble quarries near Galway, 288; in Arran 311, note.
 Martin, family of, 18, 25, 50.
 Mass, celebration of, prevented in Galway, 168.
 Mayo, principal inhabitants of, submit to the lord deputy, 93.
 Mayor and bailiffs first elected, 69.
 Medal to perpetuate the surrender of Galway to William III. 163.
 Members of Parliament, 231.
 Men of genius and learning, viz. Patrick Darcy, John Lynch, Roderick O'Flaherty, George L. Staunton, Walter B. Kirwan, and Richard Kirwan, natives of Galway, addenda.
 Militia, 167; officers of, ib.; note, 170, 176.
 Mint, established in Galway, 65.
 Modern improvements, 282.
 Moncton, family of, 316.
 Monuments and inscriptions in St. Nicholas' church, 252, 253; in St. Francis' abbey, 268; in Dominican abbey 271.
 Moore, family of, 21.
 Morris, or Mares, family of, 19, 25, 65.
 Mountjoy, lord deputy, fortifies Galway, 96; causes the fort of St. Augustine to be built, 97; visits the town, ib.; receives the submission of several chieftains, ib.
 Murage charter, 58.
 Mutton island, fort on, surrenders, 132; the island used as a commonage by the town, 144, note; castle repaired, 164; fortified, 167; light-house, 280.
- Nagnata, the ancient city of Galway, 37.
 Natives of Galway, members of the assembly of confederate Catholics at Kilkenny, 123, note.
 New rules regulating the corporation, 144.
 Nicholas, St. account of, 233, note.
 Nolan, family of, 21, 26, 66.
- O'Brien, Dermot more, protects the trade of Galway, 51.
 O'Briens lords of Arran, 52, note; expelled by the O'Flaherties, ib.; petition of the corporation in their favor, ib.; curious transactions concerning them, 207, note.
 O'Connor, Roderick, monarch of Ireland, makes peace with Henry II. 44; dethroned by his sons, 45; dies in Cong, ib.
 ——— Cathal Crowdearg, defeats Decourey, 45; founds Abbey Knockmoy, ib.; defeats Cathal Carragh O'Connor, 46; joins Miler Fitz-Henry, ib.; forces de Burgo to surrender, and enters into a treaty with king John, ib.; dies, ib.
 ———, Fedhlim, established, 47; visits Henry III. ib.; takes the castle of Galway, 48; dies, ib.
 ———, Hugh, defeats Walter de Burgo, 49; is slain, ib.
 ———, Fedhlim, joins the earl of Ulster against Bruce, 54; puts his rival, Roderick O'Connor, to death, ib.; slain at the battle of Athenry, ib.
 O'Daly, family of, 112.
 O'Donnell, Hugh ruadh; destroys Athenry, 94; marches towards Galway, 95; burns the suburbs, 96; put to flight, ib.
 ———, Baldearg, account of, 156, note.
 O'Flaherty, family of, 10, 20, 40; note, 81.
 O'Halloran, sept of, 3, 18, 20; note.
 O'Madden, chieftain of Siol-Anncad, submits, 81.
 O'Mahony, Connor, his violent publication, 123; curious censure of it by the corporation of Galway, ib. note.
 O'Mayle, chieftain of Borishoole, submits, 86.
 O'Murray, Donat, archbishop of Tuam, establishes the wardenship, 68, 234.

INDEX.

- Oranmore, castle of, 113; surrendered, 121; taken by Coots, 138.
- Ordinances for the town by Henry VIII. 80, note.
- Ormond, earl of, claims prisage of wine in Galway, 79; institutes proceedings, but is defeated, ib.; claim revived, 91; established, 92; abstract of the proceedings, ib. note.
- , marquis of, sails from Galway, 126.
- O'Shaughnessy, family of, 216, note.
- Paper manufactory, 290.
- Parishes of the collegiate church, 250, note.
- Patrick, St. destroys the pagan annals of Ireland, 34; builds a church near Galway, 38.
- Pelham, lord deputy, arrives in the town, 89; confirms the charter, 90; stations the first regular troops, 91.
- Penrise, family of, 6, 25.
- Perrot, lord deputy, arrives in Galway, 91; divides Connaught into counties, ib.; corrects many abuses, ib.
- Peters, Hugh, the famous fanatic, 117.
- Pierce Martin, Dame Mary Lynch, the earl of Clanricarde, and Granie ny Keroll, curious note concerning, 81.
- Plague rages, 126, 133.
- Plantation of Galway by a colony from Liverpool and Gloucester projected, 139.
- Population, 192, 193, 194.
- Portumna castle, 109; town 122.
- Possessions of the collegiate church, 114, note.
- Presentation convent, 278.
- Presidents of Connaught, 103, note.
- Preston, general, appointed governor, 188; takes shipping in the bay, and goes to France, 189; his letter to Luton, ib. note.
- Prisage of wines, 81, 83, 91, 92.
- Protestant inhabitants removed out of the town, 155; petition parliament, 171, 186.
- Ptolemy, his description of Ireland, 35.
- Purcell, colonel Toby, his upright conduct, 164, note; opposes Sir Henry Bellasye, ib.; accuses Edward Eyre, ib.
- Quarter episcopals, what, 247, note.
- Queen Elizabeth, her charter, 86.
- Quin, family of, 21, 26, 66.
- Quo-Warranto against the corporation, 152.
- Recorders, list of, 280.
- Railig-na-Riogh, famous burying place of, 33.
- Remarkable instance of inflexible justice, 70.
- Richard II. his first charter to Galway, 61; second charter, ib.
- III. his charter, 69.
- Rinmore, battery erected at, 120.
- Ristinane, battery at, ib.
- Rinuncini, the pope's nuncio, his violent proceedings in Galway, 124; takes shipping in the bay, and quits the kingdom, 125.
- Roba, town of, 60.
- Roscommon, county of, 99, note.
- Ross, barony of, 100, note.
- Rotherham, Sir Thomas, appointed first governor of St. Augustine's fort, 97; his character 98; elected Mayor, ib.
- Russell, lord deputy, visits the town, 94.
- , colonel, purchases the charter and other duties from Mrs. Hamilton, 147; elected mayor, ib.
- Schools in Galway, 175, note.
- Semper, family of, 21.
- Several curious particulars requiring reformation, 208.
- Ships of Galway, Dune and Connacnamara, 41.
- Shrael, massacre at, 110, note.
- Sidney, lord deputy, arrives in Galway, 85; his observations on the town, ib.
- Simcookes, family of, 228, note.
- Skerrett, family of, 19, 25, 50.
- Smith, Erasmus, his free-school, 310.
- Smuggling prevalent in Galway, 174.
- Spa-well near the town, 281, note.
- Spanish pride, 314, note.
- Speed, his description of Galway, 22.
- St. John, Sir Oliver, his description of Connaught, 22.
- Staple for wool, &c. established in Galway, 58; removed, 59.
- Strafford, lord, vide Wentworth.
- Sussex, lord deputy, arrives in Galway, 84.
- Streets of Galway first paved, 77.
- Stubbers, colonel, appointed governor of the town, 134; his proceedings, ib.
- Tacitus, his observations on Ireland, 34.
- Taylor, Walter, emp. his return, 175.
- Tenures, singular, in Galway, 282, note.
- Theatre, 315.
- Thomond, country of, added to Connaught, 91; afterwards united to Munster, ib. note.
- earl of, arrives in Galway, 89; his son put to death, 88, note.
- Tierney, family of, 21.
- Tisellan, castle of, 112; taken by Coots, 123; burned, 159.
- Town-clerks, list of, 230.
- clock erected, 103, note.
- Travelling from Galway to Dublin dangerous, 84, note.
- Tribes of Galway, origin of this appellation, 6.
- Tuam, titular archbishop of, killed, 122; narrative of the transaction, 123, note.
- Tully, family of, 21, 26, 66.
- Tyrconnell, lord, withdraws the garrison from Galway, 134; curious letter of, 248, note.
- Ulick, origin of this christian name, 54, note.
- Ulster, William, earl of, assassinated, 55; consequences thereof, 56.
- Union, declaration of the inhabitants of Galway in favor of the, 191.
- Vallancey, general, his derivation of the name of Galway, 3.
- Vesey, archbishop, his attempt to remove the archiepiscopal see from Tuam to Galway, 249.
- Volunteers of Galway 189; reviewed, 190.
- Ware Sir James, his derivation of the name of Galway, 2; his opinion as to the Irish tribes mentioned by Ptolemy, 36, 37.
- Warrant of freedom to Galway, 127, note.
- Wentworth, lord deputy, arrives in the town, 104; proceedings to find the king's title to Connaught, ib. his arbitrary treatment of the sheriff and jury of Galway, 105; the king's title found, ib.
- West-gate and tower, built by Thomas Martin, 84.
- Will of Dominick Lynch, curious extract from, 235, note.
- Willoughby, Sir Francis, appointed governor of St. Augustine's fort, 98; arrives in Dublin, and describes the state of the town, 109.
- , captain Anthony, left in command of the fort, 109; his violent conduct, 110; burns the suburbs, 112; defeats the pacific measures of Lord Clanricarde, 113; kills many of the town's people 116; surrenders the fort, 121; tragical fate of several of his men, ib. note.
- Wool, exportation of, 174, note.
- Young, Arthur, his tour through Ireland, 292, note.
- men, company of, formed, 77.